

My XM provides me with information while traveling and the only contact to the outside when in my fishing camp in the river vally in the Catskills.